

Providing a complete property consultancy

Harrisons Chartered Surveyors are an independent firm of Property Consultants, Agents and Valuers, providing a range of property services to a wide spectrum of Companies, Banking and Institutional Organisations, Public Sector Development Agencies, Local Authorities, Housing Associations, Leisure Operators and Educational Establishments.

Harrisons have an extensive and specialist knowledge of Kent, and provide the following portfolio of services and departments:

• Agency and Development Department – commercial sales and lettings, commercial and residential development, investment, planning and regeneration

• Professional and Management Department – asset management, expert witness and arbitration, landlord and tenant, rating tax and compulsory purchase, valuation and survey, rent review, lease renewal

Harrisons Chartered Surveyors have extensive property experience in Kent and the South East, including specialist knowledge in the following areas: